Gets a Warm Welcome

Leroy got a warm welcome when he got home. As he climbed the stairs to the nith floor of the building in which he lives he was met by two youngsters, a small brother and sister, who fell on him with shrill cries of delight and husged him and told him how glad they were to see him after his long three weeks' absence. Their noisy welcome brought the mother out in a hurry, and then Leroy tearfully confessed that he was glad to get back. "But what made you run away?" asked his mother.

"Well, I thought it was time that I was doing something to earn my own living." responded the boy, with some show of order. "You had to work so the came to hew lors to pay alienae! Axel was arrested, and when the ward and indicted by the Grand Jury, being now out on bail.
